

THE VILLAGE VOICE

The Village Voice –the future

September 2025 will mark the 10th anniversary and 100th edition of The Village Voice.

It will also be the current editorial team's final issue. So, what happens next?

Your answers to the questions below will help us (The Village Voice Committee) decide.

1. Do you wish to continue receiving a monthly village newsletter?
 - a) Printed copy through your front door
 - b) Online version
 - c) Neither

2. How important is a village newsletter to you?
 - a) Very
 - b) Useful but not essential
 - c) Of no importance

3. Which aspects, if any, of The Village Voice do you consider useful / worth continuing?
Please let us know overleaf.

4. What changes / additions / removals would you like to see in a future village newsletter? Your suggestions please, overleaf.

5. Would you be happy to pay an annual subscription – eg £5 per year – to receive the printed version?
 - a) Yes
 - b) No

6. Would you be prepared to make a physical contribution to the future production of a newsletter? This includes a number of roles, ie not just writing and designing/laying it out & proof-reading, but also managing advertisements, collecting from the printer, assembling deliveries & liaising with our volunteer delivery team.
 - a) Yes
 - b) No
 - c) If Yes, please set out overleaf which role/s apply to you, plus your name & contact details!

7. Finally, in place of a monthly newsletter, would you be happy simply to receive a Chilmark this Week email, flagging up forthcoming events, latest planning applications and any other key subjects of interest to the village?
 - a) Yes
 - b) No

Please complete this form by Sunday 29 September latest and drop it into the box in the Reading Room porch, or scan/photo and email it to editor@chilmarkvillagevoice.co.uk
We look forward to your responses which will be treated in confidence (no names required unless you wish to volunteer your services). Thankyou!
